

You've seen the ads.
But have you had
the conversations?

Free Family Forums

For Parents, 'Tweens & Teens

Tuesday, January 20, 2009
Centennial High School
6:30—8:00 PM

Wednesday, January 21, 2009
Caldwell High School
6:30—8:00 PM

Due to content, no children under 10, please.

These Free Family Forums take Idaho's "Not Even Once" campaign to the next level. Come learn as a family — then talk as a family.

HEALTH ALLIANCE: BRIDGE TO ADVANCED HEALING

Shelley Mitchell
Mother, wife, Idahoan.
Former addict, meth-cooker and dealer.

Monte Stiles
United States
Assistant District Attorney

Your stereotypes will be blown away. Your mind will be opened. And the sobering truth about meth will be laid bare, by people who know.

Topics to be covered:

- Where local kids are getting it
- What it looks like
- How much it costs
- Why it's so much more addictive than other drugs
- Why the consequences of using meth "even once" are so big
- Signs your child is being pressured
- Signs your child (or his/her friends) may be using
- Signs you live near a meth lab
- Appalling techniques dealers are using to hook very young kids
- Tactics to start the family conversation—and keep it going