

Idaho Statesman –Recognition in the Treasure Valley

December 31, 2008

<http://www.idahostatesman.com/business/story/618304.html>

GOOD DEEDS: The residents of the Idaho Department of Correction's Nampa Community Work Center recently donated $1,375 to the Idaho Meth Project to support the project's public education campaign to reduce first-time meth use in the state. The money was raised through wages earned by the residents as they work at various jobs in the local community.